

Guerry L. Bunn Obituary

April 17, 1927 - March 24, 2004

Guerry was born on Easter of 1927 in Early County, GA. She grew up in the Blakely and Cedar Spring area and moved to Panama City where she graduated from Bay County High School in 1944. She enjoyed a life rich in experiences. She began working as a secretary in the legal profession in Panama City and later in Georgia. In 1948, displaying the independence she had been well known for; she moved to Albany and joined the civil service to work at Turner Air Force Base. Here she met and, in 1952 married Bob Gardner a Major in the US Air Force. In 1959, the Air Force moved the young family to Buenos Aires, Argentina. While living in Tennessee in the 60's, she opened her own business, The Klothes House and an associated shoe store. Later, she rejoined the service and rose to be the senior administrative assistant for the Government's Senior Scientist at an installation in Tennessee and again at one in Florida. Her service career spanned over 20 years when she retired in the 80's in Destin Florida. She remarried following the earlier death of her husband of 28 years. After moving to Louisiana and South Florida, she returned to Destin in 2001 after 14 years of married life with Alan Bunn and became active in the Destin Women's Club, was a volunteer at Sacred Heart Hospital and a member of the Destin United Methodist Church. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Nell S. Chandler and Sarah S. Cain.
