

Gwendoline R. Flanagan Obituary

September 23, 1921 - May 3, 2004

A native of New Port Whales, Mrs. Flanagan has lived in Albany for the past 20 years. She was a house wife of the Protestant faith that loved to sew and care for her husband. The early years of her life during World War II were filled with havoc caused by the bombings that came almost every day and night, having to spend endless hours in underground shelters. She was preceded in death by her parents Will and Cissie Phillis.

Tribute Wall

“ Gwendoline R. Flanagan Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ I came upon this tribute of such a great woman and reminisced of the days of my youth in a small town in South Ga roaming the neighborhood with Tony and Phillip.

Even though time has separated us the Flanagan family will remain in my heart.

Bruce Boyd - Atlanta, GA - January 15, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ My grandmother was a very loving woman. One of the things I remember was playing scrabble with her as she drank hot tea. She loved my grandfather very much, even till the end. And I loved my grandmother just as much.

Rose Flanagan - December 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM