“ I just happen to log into FOBW chatroom and found out of Gwen's passing. For years I would go in there almost every morning, and look forward to seeing her. We even had a group of us women who exchanged "snail mail" for a while....we were "sistah's". Although we met through the internet, she touched my life, and gave me hope many times we I needed it. Sending much love up your way...you will be missed peachy.....my thoughts and prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

“ Patsy & Troy,
My thoughts and prayers are with you today in this time of sorrow. In my losses I have never understood why it happened and found only that
I had to accept by faith that the Lord would send me the peace that only He can give. May you find this peace amid your grief.
Love, Anne

“ Gwen was a lovely person and always sweet and kind to me as a child. She and my Aunt Denise were close friends for years and sadly, lost touch...but before Denise passed away she told me how proud she was that Gwen had attained her sobriety and I wish Denise could have also known that joy. Rest in peace Gwen~with sincere condolence, Danielle

“ Gwen and I met over the internet in a chat room for AA memebbers. She was a sweet lady who never had a mean thing to say about others no matter what was happening in the chat room. She excepted me for all my imperfections and my faults as an alkie in recovery. She always had words of encouragement for others even when she wasnt having a good day. She will me missed by many, but will be sadly missed by me the most.

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.

*When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.*

Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!*

“ I always thought it was so neat that my wife and Gwendolyn used the same online name peaches. They always called each other cousin. I did not get to see her very much online but my wife spoke highly of her. When I did chat with her she was a joy. She will be missed but she will be in our hearts. No words I know are able to make your loss any easier. But just know she was loved and cared about by many people. May she be with the Angles smiling down on her loving family. May god bless all of you.
