“ I came to sign the guestbook and now the words won't come. I've always loved Uncle Forrest because of the special peaceful love that I've always felt in his smile, eyes, handshake and embrace. The Bible says it all, being in our absence means being in the presence of Jesus and that's exactly where my Uncle Forrest is now. His face I feel strongly will be one of the first, other than my Granny Peak, that I'll see when my special day comes. I pray for comfort and peace for you all in this time of great sorrow. Rusty and family, if you need anything please don't hesitate to call.

“ Dear Family:My name is Francis Marion Hay and I am a second cousin of Forest's. I live in Moultrie, Georgia. Forest's Father, Henry Forest, was my first cousin and my Father, John Melton Hay's Nephew. Forest Sr. visited his Uncle Melton quiet often as a kid growing up in Albany. I knew Elwood really good and was in the Shriners with him. I did not know Forest personally until about a year ago when I met and sat by him at an Albany High School dinner function that is held quarterly at Blackbeards restaurant. He and his wife Mary were there and my wife Marilyn and I had a nice visit with the two of them reminising about our family, especially the Hay side of the Russell family that originated with my father's sister Daisy who married a Russell. We had planned to get back together at some time in the future but it appears now that it will have to wait. I was truly sorry to hear of Forest's passing and only learned of it this morning from a friend in Albany. Had I heard about it in time we would surely have been at the funeral. Give the entire family our condolences and we wish the family the best in the days ahead.Marion & Marilyn Hay

“ Forrest was one of a kind. He was always upbeat and had a smile on his face that would light up a room. I remember his contribution to the Exchange Club of Albany and his church.He was a very special man and will be missed greatly. God be with Mary, Rusty, Becky, Kathy and all the grandchildren as you celebrate the "Homegoing" of a great man. We will miss him.
