

Mr. Hansell Samuel Sheppard

January 2, 1931 - December 28, 2017

Hansell Samuel “Sam” Sheppard was born January 2, 1931 in Albany, GA to Max Aultman and Ruby White Sheppard. He died Thursday, December 28, 2017 after a lengthy illness. He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Max Aultman Sheppard, Jr., a sister, Patty Crawford and an infant niece, Nancy Crawford. Mr. Sheppard attended North Georgia Military Academy in Dahlonega, GA and served in the United States Air Force during the Korean Conflict, from 1950 until 1954. Afterwards he attended Auburn University, receiving a degree in building construction in 1958. He was employed by the Tennessee Valley Authority as a civil engineer until retirement. In retirement, he lived quietly on the lake with his wife and their pets. He enjoyed small building projects and doing yard work as long as he was able. He was an avid fan of the Auburn Tigers football team but basically enjoyed all SEC and other collegiate football.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Peggy Sheppard, a nephew, Stan Crawford and his wife, Joy, nieces, Connie Griffith and her husband, Chris and Susan Gillis, two great nephews and four great nieces.
