“ Phillip and I are thinking of all of you at this time of Ray's death. We were passing through Elijay on Friday and I had just turned to Phillip to tell him I was calling to let Ray know we were up for the weekend when I flipped the page of the paper and saw the notice.

Please know how fond we all were of Ray. I guess the kids will always remember him as Mr. Ray with the "big gun" from the house party incident! I will always see Ray in his swim suit working in the yard as that is how we often talked, over a plant! He was a good neighbor and friend and we will miss him.

Call us at 229-869-3102. We have bought a house in Blairsville and will be there frequently. Love, Lynn and Phillip McDonald

“ I am saddened to learn of Ray's passing. He worked in the Pampers Operation at Procter & Gamble and would often come through my office. Ray was very pleasant and friendly; he always had something kind to say. Though I never worked directly with him, we were a team (more like a family). May you find comfort in knowing that so many care!

THE COMFORT AND SWEETNESS OF PEACE:

*After the clouds, the sunshine,
after the winter, the spring,
after the shower, the rainbow,
for life is a changeable thing.
After the night, the morning,
bidding all darkness cease,
after life's cares and sorrows,
the comfort and sweetness of peace.
~ Helen Steiner Rice*

You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Even though we will be unable to attend today's services, our thoughts and prayers are with the Tillis family. “ Ray was a dear friend to both Robby and myself. We all met while they both were stationed at the Albany Marine Base back in the late 1960's.

Ray was a very jovial and fun loving person and I was happy when he and my goof friend Barbara Barker announced they would be marrying.

Over the years, we lost daily contact but did manage to stay in contact later...having seen Ray just recently myself, I must say, he was still in his "great spirit" as I had always known him to be.

The two of us as well as very many others will be missing him but we know that soon and very soon, we will all be reunited in God's house...
