“ Becky, I just awakened remembering Natalie had mentioned your mother had passed away just pulled up obit and realized her funeral was Tuesday I'm so sorry we had a flood here and workers here every day so have been so focused on restoration don't remember things till middle of night but flood was June 8 and we are still involved . Please accept our sincere sympathy . Losing your mother is very difficult . May your memories sustain you at this time. It was easier to let mother go because she had already begun to leave us, but I still miss her every day. Our gift was an extra month that we watched her rapid decline which made it easier for me to let her go. If this message seems convoluted it is because it is 2:30 am and my brain is hardly awake . Love to all of you and deepest sympath.
