“ I just wanted to give you my condolences for the lost of your loved one. We have all lost a loved one in death and during this trivial time it can be very hard to endure. One way that I was able to find comfort was through God's word the Bible. God makes a promise to us that at Revelation 21:4 no more pain, sickness, or death will be anymore. God is not a lie so we know that his promise will come true for all. If you have anymore questions please go to www.watchtower.org for more information.

“ To Uncle Jack, Nolan, & Maria,

I just wanted you all to know that while I could not be there in body today that Aunt Hazel and all of you were very much in my thoughts. Some of my fondest childhood memories were of me and Chad chasing each other through the bushes between our houses, wrestling with Nolan in the front yard, and knocking on the garage door where Aunt Hazel would always come and let us in and have a cold sprite waiting for us. I know we must've been a handful, but Aunt Hazel was a pure Saint and always had time for us and made us feel welcome. She might have been my "Aunt" in name, but I considered myself truly blessed to have been given another "Grandma."

My very warmest condolences and may God bless you all.

*Love,
Jason*
