“ For several years after the Leonard Young Class was disbanded, The Gace Bible Class was her class at Grace United Methodist church, Atlanta, and I was her teacher. After she moved to Albany, for several years I sent Christmas cards to her in Albany. My love and sympathy to Henry, Libby, Haley and the other memebhrs of Helen's family. God bless.

“ My Mother, Bessie Adams Hall, was a first cousin to Elgin, and wonderful memories of Helen, Elgin, Don and Jane are fondly being remembered today. So sad to read of Helen's death in our local paper and really appreciate the one(s) responsible for letting this community know of her home going - what an incredible life!!

“ The old hymn "Others" truly describes our Aunt Helen: "Others, Lord, yes others. Let this my motto be. Help me to live for others, that I might live for Thee." She was so kind and loving, positive, so pleasant to be with, encouraging, and always wanted the best for others. She very quietly sat a fine example for others to try to follow. I loved my Aunt Helen. She was my Mother's (Frances) sister. To Haley, Hank, Lisa, Lori, Henry, Libby and family, please remember we're thinking of you and we love you, too. With Sympathy, Gail & Sammy Johnson

“ Friends from Grace UMC in Atlanta would like to express our condolences to the family of Helen Squires. She was a well loved member of Grace Church and the Leonard Young Sunday School Class. I remember her well as always loving, caring, friendly and lots of fun to be around. She and Herb were good friends of my parents, Evelyn and Dae Brown, who were also members of the class. I still think of Helen and Herb each time I pass there former home on Briarcliff Road in Atlanta. Please know that we remember her leadership in many groups and the love she shared with everyone.

Blessings to you all and especially those who helped to care for her as she got older.
