“ *Dear Tracy,
Do you remember Sara Simmons, who used to be your neighbor on Mary St? I'm her mother. I'm so sorry you lost your sweet mother. I saw her not long ago, and she remembered me and told me how you were doing. I'll tell Sara.
God bless you and your family.

“ We are very saddened to learn of Ms. Hilda's death. I am glad that we got to see her in June. I just wish we could have stayed longer and wish Zack could have come with us. I know she is in a better place and we will see her again when we meet in Heaven. May God comfort all of you during this time. We love all of you. Beverly, Alice's daughter sends her love and regards also. Alice, Dianne, Tonya and Zack
