

Horace D. Brock Obituary

December 13, 1933 - April 9, 2004

A native of Climax, GA, Mr. Brock lived his early years in Meigs, GA before moving to Albany in 1963, where he was a member of New Life of Albany Church, and was retired from the Albany Police Department after 23 years of service. Mr. Brock was an avid outdoorsman. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening. He also served in the United States Navy during the Korean conflict on the USS Haas.

“ *To the entire Brock family:
Please accept our sincere sympathies in the loss of your loved one. We know you rejoice that he no longer suffers, but are sad he is no longer with you. God bless you with peace and comfort.

“ *I'm so sad to hear of the passing of Horace. My father, W.T.
(Bubber) Pierce worked with him with the Albany City Police and liked him very much. Many years later, I had the priviledge of working with Horace while he was with the Lee County Sheriff's Dept. I will remember him as a very kind man with a great sense of humor. My deepest sympathy goes out to all the family.*

“ Reba, I am so sorry for your loss of Horace that you have loved for many many years...He was a good man and he will be missed but he is in Heaven now with no pain, with a spring in his step but I am sure he misses you Reba...

I am so glad I got to see Horace and you a couple of weeks ago at Ryan's Steak House...

Love you

Diane

“ Horace Brock was my Police Supervisor, Mentor and Father figure. Horace taught me many valuable lessons that I continue to draw upon in life. I will never forget my hunting experiences with Horace, and Jason. God Bless Horace, and his family. He was an outstanding American, and credit to the uniforms he wore. Charles White
