“ Hoyt was my first supervisor at the Marine Base back when I first got out of the Marine Corps, and went to work in the warehouses. He was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He was just a gentle person, and never raised his voice to make a point. I learned a lot from him, and he always remembered me, even tho' our ways parted. I now live in Arizona, working as a nurse on the Apache Reservation, and will retire in 4 years with 36 years of combined Federal Service. I will always remember him as a good and kind man. May the Lord guide you and keep you close.
