

Mrs. Ilene Deloris Bates Barfield Obituary

March 18, 1950 - March 14, 2014

The family of Ilene Deloris (Bates) Barfield, aged 63, is saddened with her sudden passing into the hands of her heavenly father. She was of the Baptist faith and lived her life accordingly.

A private family service will be held at Byne Memorial Baptist Church.

During the last 10 years she fought courageously the dreaded diseases of congestive heart failure and the very painful fibromyalgia.

She was born in Norman Park, GA to Walsteen Bates and Ruby Jewel Bates. She lived most of her early life in Moultrie, GA. She attended Moultrie High School before she and her family moved to Albany GA. in the early 60's.

She was an apprentice in a Beauty Shop beside the old Albany Theater in the 60's. Andy and Deloris met and later Married in 1968, a marriage that has lasted 45 years. They went on to raise two boys during those 45 years.

While married to Andy she attended and graduated from Albany Technical School with a degree in Cosmetology. She worked for various beauty shops until she became the owner operator of Magnolia Beauty Salon. Her career spanned 20 years before she had to retire with disabilities. During those years she always loved to interact with her customers.

Deloris is survived by her husband of 45 years, Andy J. Barfield III, Albany; sons, Andrew J. Barfield, Lee County, Nathan H. Barfield, Sasser; sisters, Barbara Munroe of Alpharetta GA, Janell Collins of Baconton, GA, Mary Carpenter of Savannah, GA, Jackie Brown of Portland, ME; grandson: Andrew J. Barfield Jr.; great granddaughter: Emma Nadia, brothers, Homer Bates of Lee County, Truman Bates of Sasser and Numerous Aunts, Uncles, nieces and nephews.
