It is comforting to know that my grandmother is no longer suffering as she has for years without the company of my grandfather. Surely, she is now enjoying the greatest Garden ever created.

Dear GM,

I miss you... and your poundcakes... no one made one better than you.

Baking, gardening... eating GP's candy... butterflies, feeding all things furred and feathered, pastel colours and flowers... playing canasta on the front porch (or Go Fish with the little ones) - I'd always be on your side (you always won!)... you always spent more time in the Monopoly jail than you did on the rest of the board... the display of Christmas decorations... all of the clocks in the trailer... your dark hair tightly coiled into a bun or (at night) into long braids... writing soap-messages on the mirror... and your love of Christ.

I'll always have you with me wherever I go - with fondest memories and deepest love,

Your granddaughter,

“ GM, I am so glad I had the chance to know and love you. The memories I have of you from my childhood are very precious to me, and I'm grateful for all the little things you did to make us all feel special. You always had a kind word and hug, and you had the sweetest nature of anyone I know. I am so glad that you and GP are finally together again.

Your very loving granddaughter,

Beth

“ Grandma Duke always relished her role of grandmother. She kept a library for the children, and always was at the ready for a game of Monopoly or Canasta. She changed my life by helping to foster my life-long love of comic books by taking the time to read every word in them to a very busy little guy. She was always my very favorite grandparent and I will miss her dearly but I know that she is in a much better place now. I love you, Grandma.

“ I was sorry to hear about Mrs. Duke's death. I didn't know her, but I do know her son, my brother-in-law. He is as nice a person as you could ever hope to meet. I feel lucky to have him as family. And I know he wouldn't have been the man he is without a good and caring mother.
