“ Some of the best times and memories were during the holidays at my mother's house (Norma Woods). Inez and my mom and several other friends would sit on the back porch after a big dinner and chat. They would always share with me stories when they were young. It was such a pleasure to be with them and learn so much about their lives and the wisdom they had to share. Inez is a true southern charm. My mother and I will miss her, but know she is in a better place.

God Bless, Lisa and Norma Woods....
