“ God bless you all. Aunt Ira was one of those special people that joined our McGhee family by marrying my father's (Denver) youngest brother. She was always gracious and had a quick wit and spunk that made her a delightful match to any of the family reunions when siblings teased her about being a Georgia peach. I loved the exchange of humor between by dad and Aunt Ira. I remember how my parents were so excited when our Uncle Chuckie, Don and Beverly came for visits. I was always grateful that she allowed my sisters and I to call her Aunt Booboo. We didn't realize until we were older that she did not like the name. Uncle Charles and family, our prayers are with you. Live in the Hope that we will see her in Heaven again.

*Love,

“ So sad to lose a family member. I haven't seen Aunt Ira for a number of years but I thought of her & Uncle Chuck often. She was always gracious when I did see her & I remember many fun times as a child when she visited Ohio. She & Uncle Chuck were gracious enough to allow my husband & I use the lake house & boat for our honeymoon over 38 years ago. She will be missed. Patti McGhee Orders
