“ I'm offering my condolences during this time. A comforting scripture to remember is Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away.

“ I admired and respected Mrs. (Renie) Duke very much. She was especially thoughtful to my family when my Dad and Mother ,Ed and Cile Friend ,were seriously ill years ago. She would come to the hospital or offer to help in any way. May God comfort and bless her Family. Respectfully Ed H. Friend Sr. Hogansville, Georgia and Lea Lacey (Friend) Valdosta, Georgia.

“ We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Renie was a dear friend to the Pierce family, and a very close friend to my mother, Catherine Pierce. I was in Mrs. Renie's nursery class, and she always reminded me of the time I kicked her. With a twinkle in her eye, she told my Mother she hoped I had 5 children just like me. Our prayers are with you as you adjust to her home-going.

“ To the Duke Family: During our time of sorrow we reflect many times on the memories of our loved one. Usually those that have left such a lasting impression on our life. As we contemplate these, we still wonder whether this life is all there is. Our loving heavenly Father never leaves us in doubt. It is his Word that help us to see that even though the 'dead are conscious of nothing at all' (Ecclesiastes 9:5) there still lies the hope of the resurrection (Acts 24:15) when we will all see our dead loved ones again. any examples in the Bible of those that were resurrected assure us that our heavenly Father has the ability to do this. May you find comfort in knowing that this is a guarantee.
