“ Kay, Through the years It has been so good to see you and Carswell at church, and church supper. It was fun to greet you two. You were always so cheerful and had word of cheer for those you met. Carswell was always right there with you, even at time I am sure it was difficult.

Paul and I will always remember the last class reunion of the Albany High School 1947 Class. What fun we had at the banquet. We are so glad you chose to sit with us that night. Carswell asking you to dance and your reaction was priceless and is one of our fond memories. Then in a few minutes you two were on the dance floor. What a wonderful sight. And he danced beautifully with the LOVE of his life. REMEMBER THAT DANCE.

Thinking of you

“ Dear Whitcomb,
I didn't know your Granddaddy but I know you and your Dad. He must have been a fine man. What I do know is this...he didn't want to leave you, he'll always be with you and he'll be getting things "just right" for when you meet on the other side.
I will keep you and your family in my prayers.
Your friend,
Oscar
