

Jacqueline Ann Allen Satterfield Obituary

February 2, 1925 - April 26, 2011

Jackie was born February 2, 1925 in Columbus, GA to John Tilton and Sarah Boggs Allen. She graduated from Jordan High School in Columbus in 1942 where she was a cheerleader. On Christmas Day of the same year, she married her high school sweetheart, Ralph Satterfield. They were married for 68 years until Ralph's death in January of this year. Jackie moved with her family to Albany in 1954. She and her family were charter members of Sherwood Baptist Church. At the time of her death, she was a member of Albany First United Methodist Church. She worked as an insurance clerk for several area physicians, including Dr. Mooney, Drs. Holman and Talley and Drs. Hollis, Johnson and Guillebeau. After her retirement, she was involved with her bridge club and became an avid baker, providing her family with many special desserts. She dearly loved her grandchildren and loved being part of their lives. Jackie was preceded in death by her husband, parents, a brother, John Allen, and sister, Dorothy Allen Terry. She is survived by her sons, Bill (Jean) and Steve of Albany; grandchildren, Mark of Haymarket, VA; Joel (April) of Newnan, GA, Allen (Adelaide) of Leesburg, GA, and Jenny of Savannah, GA; four grandchildren, Ben and Blake Satterfield of Haymarket, VA; Elaina and Bryan Satterfield of Newnan, GA; and two nieces, Jane Terry Philpott and Judy Terry Powell of Columbus, GA.
