

Jacqueline Annette Martin Alston Obituary

September 5, 1941 - November 29, 2006

Jacqueline Annette Martin Alston, 65, of Albany, died Wednesday, November 29, 2006 at her residence. The funeral service will be held at 2 PM Friday at Victory Tabernacle Assembly of God with Rev. Eddie Adams and Rev. John Price officiating. Interment will follow in Crown Hill Cemetery. A native of Atlanta, Mrs. Alston had lived in Albany for most of her life and was a homemaker. She was a member of Victory Tabernacle Assembly of God where she was a prayer partner, volunteered in the nursery, and for a number of years worked at the church as a custodian. She also worked as a sitter with elderly and terminally ill patients. She was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Alston; her mother, Vera Ellington; and a granddaughter, Cadarina Price. Mrs. Alston is survived by three sons: Bill Price and his wife Pam of Albany, Rev. John Price and his wife Selina of Reidsville, and Michael Price of Reidsville; two daughters: Melissa Vaglianti and her husband Eric of Sylvester and Dawn Musgrove of Albany; a brother, Gary Ellington and his wife Kim of Albany; and ten grandchildren. The family will receive friends Thursday from 6 PM until 8 PM at Kimbrell-Stern Funeral Directors.

“ Dear Family, My family and I would like you all to know how very sorry we are for your loss. One thing can give you comfort is the FACT that she loved our Lord Jesus and was always ready to exalt Him before anyone. Absence from this body is to be present with Him. Take great comfort in this truth. Always Jack and Annette Hilton
