“ We have just learned of Jim's passing and are so sorry. Please accept our deepest sympathies. As you know, Robert and Jim worked together for a long time. It was only a week or so ago that we were talking of the Cornett family and wondering how everybody was and where everyone was living now. The service is this morning, so we will be unable to attend, but please know we have you in thoughts and prayers. God grant you all comfort and peace.
