

Mr. James Latimer Dendy Jr.

May 25, 1932 - November 4, 2017

James Latimer Dendy, Jr. of Albany, Ga passed away peacefully on November 4, 2017. A celebration of Jim's life will be held Monday, November 6, 2017 at Porterfield United Methodist Church at 11:00 A.M. Visitation will precede the service at 10:00 A.M. Rev Robert Greene and Rev. William Collins will officiate. Interment will follow at Decatur Cemetery in Decatur, GA at a later date.

Jim was a native Georgian born in Atlanta on May 25, 1932. His family relocated to the Washington D.C. area where he attended St. Johns College High School and graduated from McKinley Tech High School in 1950. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1951-1955. Upon his return, he married Grace Leigh Haste of Hyattsville, Maryland. He graduated from the University of Maryland with a degree in horticulture in 1960.

Jim spent his first career of 35 years in the pecan industry working for Gold Kist and Tracy Luckey Pecan Company in Atlanta, Waycross and Albany, Georgia. Jim enthusiastically embraced a second career with The Louver Shop until his retirement at 80 years of age.

Jim was a member of numerous civic organizations throughout his life including the Rotary and Exchange Clubs. He enjoyed membership at Doublegate Country Club and was a member of Porterfield Methodist Church and the Alpha Sunday School class.

Jim treasured family and friends who came to expect his pranks, easy laugh and storytelling. He loved spending time at Lake Burton where he put his energy into building a cabin where memories of Bar B Ques, fireworks, and Ed Dodd pancakes will be cherished.

Jim is survived by his wife of 61 years, Grace; daughter Deborah Ashendorf and her husband, Bruce, Atlanta, GA; daughter Donna Propst and her husband, Warren, Columbia, SC; 5 grandchildren Taylor Ashendorf; Anne Usilton and husband Zack; Charles Propst and wife Ann Rainey; James Propst, and Edwin Propst; 2 great grandchildren Caroline Usilton and Louis Propst, sister, Diana Allebach and brother in law, George, Annapolis, MD. as well as numerous and loving extended family members.

“ Jim was one of a kind -- always ready to share a laugh and make comments about whatever was going on, especially at Lake Burton, where we got to know him. He was optimistic about his situation and about life in general -- and his barbecue ability was legendary. Our lives are better for having known him, and we will miss him.

Lots of love to Grace and the family,

Anne and John Whitney
