

James R. Dill Obituary

October 20, 1922 - May 9, 2004

A native of Albany, Mr. Dill moved to Duluth in 2001. He was a member of Central Baptist Church, the Crusaders Sunday School Class and enjoyed singing in the choir. He was retired from Georgia Crown Distributors, a Navy veteran serving during World War II, a member of the Walter H. Burt American Legion Post 30 and a graduate of Albany School, the Class of 1939. He was affectingly known as "Dedaddy" to his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ James R. Dill Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ *Joyce, Rick, Nancy and Jon,
I was saddened to hear of Jimmy's passing. There are many happy memories of growing up with your family! We all wish you the best in the coming days.
Phil Faulkner*

Phil Faulkner - May 12, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Know that my prayers are with you even though I cannot be. May God our Comforter be your Prince of Peace. May His Truth be spoken as you celebrate Jimmy's life!

*I will see you when you return!
Joy in Jesus,
Jean <><*

Jean M Scott - May 11, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I have known Mr. Dill since I was in elementary school with his daughter, Nancy. I delivered mail to his address on Lullwater for many years and had the opportunity to talk often with him. I found him to be a very charming and interesting individual. I know he will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

Joey Lawrence - May 10, 2004 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Jimmy and I worked together at Georgia Crown in Albany however even after I moved to Marietta Jimmy and I stayed in touch. He was like a second father to me and would always call and ask about the family. He is truly a wonderful man and is now an angel with our God.

Steve & Beverly Brice - May 10, 2004 at 12:00 AM