

James "Jim" Edward Fallaw Sr.

February 6, 1941 - November 17, 2015

Mr. James "Jim" E. Fallaw, Sr., 74, of Albany passed away Tuesday, November 17, 2015 at his residence. A graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM Saturday, November 21, 2015 at Riverside Cemetery. The Rev. Keith Gaines will officiate.

Mr. Fallaw was born on February 6, 1941 in Newport News, Virginia to the late Charles E. and Louise Moore Fallaw. He had lived in Albany for many years where he worked as an Independent Insurance Agent for Kansas City Life. After retirement, Mr. Fallaw invested his time in helping people recovering from addictions in their lives. He was a faithful volunteer at both the Anchorage and Graceway Recovery where he helped many people. Mr. Fallaw was a member of the 1st United Methodist Church of Albany. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed spending time with his family.

He is survived by his sons, James E. Fallaw, Jr. (Nancy) of Gadsden, AL, Jon A. Fallaw (Jenny) of Tomball, TX and Curtis J. Fallaw (Lynda) of Leesburg; grandchildren, Parker Fallaw, Jordan Fallaw, Makalya Fallaw, Keisha Hereford, Adam Cash, Maisie Fallaw, Madison Fallaw, Tylar Fallaw, Jackson Fallaw and Tripp Fallaw; and several great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, A. Merle Fallaw in October 2003. For those desiring, memorials may be made to The Anchorage Inc. 162 Hampton Lane, Leesburg, GA 31763 or Graceway Recovery Residence, PO Box 32, Albany, Ga 31702.

The family will receive friends from 5-7 PM on Friday at Kimbrell-Stern.

“ Mr. Jim was a kind man. I was a rambunctious little punk who was 20 when I met him, freshly 21 when i started listening, and stuck in a recovery Home (GraceWay) against my will the entire time. It took me months to absorb his message, but when I did, it was the proverbial lightbulb for me. I could be happy again. I will never forget his smiling face, or the conviction with which he spoke. I will never forget him crying with me, for me, for the pain he knew I was in in those dark early days. I wish I had reached out after I left Albany in 2012. I hope he knew I loved him. Deep down, I know he did. To hear of his passing now, so late, reinforces my resolve that this program is about connection, and caring, and hope. I love you Mr. Jim. I miss you.

“ Dear Fallaw Family,
So sorry to hear about your loss. Nothing can really fully prepare us for the loss of a loved one. But we can find comfort and hope that they are no longer suffering as ecclesiastes 9:5 reassures us that they feel nothing at all, and that One day we won't have to deal with death because there will be no more pain and death like Isaiah 25:8,9 tells us. hope this has brought some comfort to you. And again my condolences.

I knew Jim Fallaw as Coach Fallaw back in 196- & 1970. We had a small football team from Randolph County but the core group were full of talent. Was sorry that today I learned that he had died. He made a difference in many people's lives.

PS

I am sorry for your loss. I met Jim through working at Graceway and we became close friends. Even after moving to NC, we spoke almost daily. I am happy for him - he was so lonely and tired of struggling every day. His phone calls and friendship helped through my personal losses and I will miss his voice and friendship. He is at peace now.
