“ Jim was a good man and a great dad. He let Mallery stay with you Leah during a bad storm when I was out of town. He reassured me that y'all were fine and I trusted him and knew Mallery was in good hands. He also has the most lights on his Christmas tree that I had ever seen. It was just beautiful as my memories are of him.

*I am wondering if Jim was in Albany in the late sixties and early 70s as an Aviation Electronics technician, at NAS Albany. I believe he served onboard USS Forrest's and USS Kitty Hawk, during the Vietnam conflict
