“ Dear Eddie, Karen, Julie and Linda,

We are sorry to hear of the loss of your father last Saturday. We have fond memories of our times at the Elk's Club pool with Jim and Nancy and with each of you. Those were fun times.

Although we were unable to get in to see you last night due to the crowd, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. We will think of you and your parents often. Please call if we can help.

“ To the children and grandchildren of Jim:

I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was a wonderful brother, husband and father and loved all of you so much. He talked about you constantly when I would visit on my way to and from Florida each year. I hope it is some comfort to you to know that he and Nancy are together again, enjoying their heavenly reward.

Much love to you all, your Aunt Mary from Akron, OH.
