“ James, my special cousin. His love for life was contagious and his laughter was abundant, wherever he was. Every year during our family beach trip, James would fly a kite that was tied to our deck. Each day, he would add rolls of string allowing it to soar higher and higher. On the last day, he would watch as it disappeared from sight. We always wondered where it would land. James may be gone from our sight, but we don't have to wonder. See you in Heaven. I love you....

“ James was a special person. Incredibly smart, absolutely hilarious at times. He was really more than a friend. We knew each other for so long I really considered him- and still do consider him- family. Not like a brother, but a brother in fact. We'll miss him so very much.

“ James was like a brother to me. Growing up, he was the overprotective big brother that was always looking out for me. More than 25 years later, James was still looking out for me. He was a wonderful friend that will be deeply missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.....Love always,
