“ I'm sorry to learn about Jimmy's passing. When we were kids and I visited Albany he was my best friend in the area. We always had a great time, collecting bottles for the refund, walking up to the convenience store, raiding the pear tree down the street. I'm sorry I never looked him up later in life, but I hope he was happy and spread happiness. Bert Whetstone

“ Our hearts ache for you and all you have endured over the months. Jimmy was surrounded in love during his 51 years and now is surrounded with love in his eternal home. I find comfort in the quote that said our last breath on earth will be our first one in heaven. Just know we care. Ann n Ronnie Griffeth
