

James Lokey Obituary

November 27, 1937 - January 23, 2011

Born in Albany, Mr. Lokey lived in Albany most of his life where he was the owner and operator of Lokey's Custom Golf. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Leesburg and The Loyal Order of the Moose. He was preceded in death by his parents Ezra and Ossie Lokey and his brother Ezra L. Lokey Jr. Survivors include his wife Mary L. Lokey of Albany; a son James Keith Lokey and his wife Dawn of Sylvester; a step-son Ted Lind and his wife Carol of Leesburg; a sister Jean Lord of Albany; seven grandchildren Kristopher Lokey, Nicklaus Lokey, Logan Allen, Clarissa Lind, Paige Lind, Jesse Ray Lind and William L. Lind.

Tribute Wall

“ James Lokey Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Mr Lokey was a fine gentleman and a master at his craft. WE ALL loved Mr Lokey. The entire golf world will miss him everyday and will be grateful for everything. He helped a lot of people. GOD BLESS YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

jerry meadows - February 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Keith, my thoughts & prayers are with you & your family. Your dad was a good & very kind man. May you find comfort in this very difficult time.

Kevin O'Lear - January 27, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I will miss him. He was a generous and caring man. May God comfort this family with wonderful memories.

price corr - January 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Golf is said to be a game for gentlemen. If that is so it has lost golf one of the best it will ever know. Jim has been a friend and golf buddy for many years and I will miss the trips to the shop for tinkering with sticks to always improve my game. A true master at his craft I will surely miss him. My thoughts and prayers go out to Keith and the Lokey family.

Steve Shephard - January 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM