“ Debra & Family! hold each of you in my prayers at this time and ask God to comfort and keep each of you in this time of sorrow. Death of a loved one affects each person differently but one thing that is common to us all is our love of God and if we talk to him frequently it will help sooth our pain. God bless each of you.

“ Dear Johnny and Joy, We share in the sorrow we know you're experiencing at this time. Please know you have been lifted in prayer since your departure from Dooly Sunday morning, and will be in our prayers in the days and weeks to follow. I hope you can find comfort in knowing your father is where we all strive to be one day; with our Lord, from whom you will find the comfort and strength to carry you through this time of grief. "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, no crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed." Revelation 21:4. With heartfelt love, your brother in Christ, Steve Wade

“ Debra, my heart goes out to you, my friend... I was so sorry to hear about your Dad. I wish I could come and give you a hug in person, but I know you will understand. Debra, words are so limited for comforting you during this time of your life and with this loss so fresh. Remember that prayers are your greatest strength and with them and with God's loving arms surrounding you, you can survive anything, including grief. I can only offer some words of heartfelt advise - breath in and out and drink lots of water. as funny as that sounds, that is the greatest physical advise you can receive to help you through this time. My dear friend, Debra... I miss seeing your lovely face and hearing your laughter. I know that the laughter is not there at this time, but it will come. Debra, I am sending you a big (((((((HUG))))))) and hope you can feel it from here. I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Love ya. Susan
