“ *Cindy,
I am so sorry I have not been able to speak with you before now. Please know that you have been in my daily thoughts and prayers. Jim was one of a kind...so dear and sweet. I was so glad I had the opportunity to know him. I will always remember watching you and Jim dance together at one of the volunteer recognition dinners. I enjoyed that so much. You two had a great life together and certainly were blessed to have each other. Just know your Phoebe family is here for you and love you dearly.*

“ As a young boy growing up I couldn't wait for a visit from my Aunt Lucinda and Uncle Jim. They are very special people and as I grew older that feeling of joy never left me. I hope my dad and Jim are hunting together in heaven. Love Larry

“ Dear Cindy
Our thoughts and prayers are with you as we are saddened by the passing of Jim. We rejoice in knowing that he is with our Lord now and that he has no more pain. May God be with you and give you strength during this hard time.
Our Love,
Greg and Jodi Harbin

“ Jim was one of the most extraordinary people I have ever known. His outlook on life was always uplifting and his life experiences (the ones he related) were second to none. I enjoyed the many fishing and hunting trips we took. What I appreciated most about Jim was the friendship he and Dad shared. I will miss Jim but his memory will not be forgotten.

“ Dear Miss Cindy and family,

One thing Mr. Jim taught me was this; life is like fishing, you cast and don't know what you're going to reel in or how hard it will fight you, but you make the best of it and cast again. I will miss Grandpa Jim.
Love,
Matthew Dickinson
