

James Harold Potter (Jim)

July 19, 1940 - October 23, 2024

James Harold Potter (Jim), 84, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2024, at his home in Albany, Georgia.

Born on July 19, 1940, Jim was known for his kindness and deep love for his family.

Jim is survived by his three children, Debi Drawdy (Tim), Tracy Clark (Jimmy), and Jason Potter (Angie); his grandchildren, Jonathan Judy (Jamie), Justin Judy (Ashley), Owen Clark (Rachel), Landon Clark (Tori), Mary McCain Roy (Davis), and Will Potter; his great grandchildren, James, John, Gavin, Hayden, and Ethan Judy; and three sisters Joyce Sullivan (Lou), Sandi Thompson, and Carolyn Hall.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Sally Hinson Potter, his mother Carrie McCain Potter, his father Claude Potter, his two brothers Richard Potter and William Potter, and his sister Peggy Prescott.

Jim enjoyed traveling, reading, and spending time with his family. His gentle, caring personality leaves a lasting impression on those who knew him well. He will be deeply missed.

The family will gather together at a later date to celebrate his life.

Tribute Wall

“ Worked with Jim many years ago at Western Electric rest in peace brother ”

Roger Todd - October 26, 2024 at 02:43 PM