

Mr. James Fred Taylor Obituary

November 4, 1929 - December 16, 2011

James Fred Taylor, self-made businessman and a formidable fixture in Georgia politics since 1966, passed away early Friday morning at his home in Albany, Georgia. Services will be held on Tuesday, December 20, 2011, 12 Noon, at Porterfield Memorial United Methodist Church in Albany, with a private interment service to follow in Crown Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Porterfield beginning at 11 AM till service hour.

Born November 4, 1929, in Alma, Georgia, he was the son of L. W. Taylor, Sr. and Ovieda Taylor, brother to Betty Morris, the late L. W. Taylor, Jr. and the late Windle A. Taylor. He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Tommie Taylor, three children and five grandchildren.

Fred Taylor was farm boy, high school basketball state champion, Korean War Air Force Sergeant, Student Body President at South Georgia College in Douglas, husband to Tommie and father to Mark, Marsha and Linda.

A fearless entrepreneur who started his first business with $95 in Ocilla, GA, he was founder and owner of Georgia Mack Sales now Transpower, Inc. with locations in Albany, Valdosta and Douglas, 1967 Mack Truck National Dealer of the Year, and founder and owner of Interstate National Lease, Inc., Georgia's largest privately-owned truck leasing firm with 16 locations in Georgia and Alabama.

He was a former Albany Chamber of Commerce Vice President, twin engine rated pilot, former member City of Albany Aviation Commission, South Georgia Campaign Manager, Campaign Finance Co-Chair and the "Field Marshall" for George Busbee for Governor in 1974 and 1978. Chief of Staff to Governor George Busbee 1974 to 1982, and a leader in the passage of Constitutional Amendment Number 2 allowing George Busbee to be the first Georgia Governor to seek and win a second consecutive term in office.

He was founder and owner of Interstate Warehouse Services of Albany and Thomasville, an 18 year member of the Board of Directors for SunTrust Bank, long time Director for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Georgia Motor Trucking Association, member of Governor Zell Millers' Commission on Effectiveness and Economy in Government, and recognized on four occasions by Georgia Trend Magazine as one of the 100 Most Influential Georgians.

Fred Taylor was the beloved and devoted Grandfather to Fletcher, Leslie, Taylor, Culin and Wells who knew him as their "FT." Their good health and educational success was always at the forefront of their Grandfather's mind.

As a conservationist, cattle man, and farmer, Fred Taylor was owner of Chokey Plantation in Lee County. GA. There he spent thousands of hours personally managing a wild quail habitat, a quality deer management program, protecting and honoring the Flint River and working tirelessly on an extensive beautification and planting program. FT loved Chokey and was passionate about the awesome natural beauty of South Georgia.

Fred Taylor will be greatly missed by family, friends and employees who have been so wonderful to him during his long illness. His family especially appreciates the physicians, nurses and staff of Phoebe Putney Hospital and his long-time care givers Henry Lemon and Cindy Baltimore.

In lieu of flowers, those wishing to honor his memory may donate to the Willson Hospice House, AFLAC Cancer Center at Children's Health Care of Atlanta, The Salvation Army of Albany or Sherwood Baptist Church where Mr. Taylor was a member since 1962.

You may sign the guestbook and share your thoughts with the family of Fred Taylor by visiting Kimbrell-Stern's website at www.kimbrellstern.com.

“ FT was a person to be admired. He loved his wife, children ad grandchildren more than anything. I had the pleasure of working directly with him for several years. He was a humble man enjoying most breakfasts and lunches in his office. Nothing gave him more pleasure than to see his family happy and healthy. While he always set the bar for success, he did so with a kindness that was inspiring. My prayers are with you Tommie, Mark, Linda and Marsha.

“ Tommy, my love thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I have not seen you or Fred in years but to remind you of which cousin I am, I visited with Betty frequently when you and Fred lived across the street. You were kind enough to let me use your wedding veil when I got married. I always kept up with the family through Betty. Take care and know that you are loved by distant cousins. Fred would say "oh, thats Cousin Lexie's daughter."

“ Mark,

I remember your Dad fondly. He prepared the way for decades of governors in Georgia from the Busbee administration. Please know we are remembering you in our prayers as you go through the following months. Having been where you are makes me know that the pain will fade into precious memories in the months and years ahead.

Would love to hear from you sometime!

“ I have always been grateful to Fred for his friendship and help as I started my career with Fruehauf Trailer in South Georgia.

He was one of the most positive thinking man I have been exposed to. He had come a long way from the Mack dealership in Ocilla to a well-run corporation for his family to continue.

He had a great drive to succeed and he achieved those goals many times..

My deepest sympathy to Tommie & family

“ Mr. Fred has been a friend to the entire McCranie family for years. My father George III and Uncles Shasta and Baker considered him a friend and had the utmost respect for Mr. Fred. He was a trusted adviser to our family and I am sure his friendship will be missed by Georgians all over the state. Although I am one of the youngest McCranies, I also considered Mr. Fred to be a friend and appreciate both his and Marks friendship. We will not be able to attend the services due to medical reasons for my father and uncle but we give our deepest condolences to the entire Taylor family. If we can ever be of any assistance please let us know. God Bless Mr. Fred and the Taylor family.

“ Dear Tommie, Mark, Marsha and Linda

It is with sadness that we read about Fred's passing. We know how much you will miss him, how much Albany will miss him. He lived a long and fruitful life and for that we can all be thankful. Helen remembers with fondness teaching all of Fred and Tommie's kids at Deerfield. We both remember the senior trip with Mark to the Bahamas. May God bless you in this time of sorrow and comfort you with happy memories of years with Fred. you are in our prayers.
