“ Tweedy was the epitome of what we backwards(style-wise) Chestertown kids thought the image of fifth graders should be. I remember clam diggers, learning to twist, etc. Her birthday was June 13, and even though she was younger than me, I saw her as a model for our teenage years.

Heartfelt condolences to her husband, children and her brother, Charlie & her sister, Jennifer. Gretchen Kratzer Starling

SO many of us in Chestertown, MD have wonderful, loving memories of our dear friend Tweedy, who lived here with Charlie, Jennifer, and their amazing parents while their father was rector at Emmanuel Episcopal Church. We knew her only from 5th-8th grade, and thought at first she was rather sophisticated, having come from the big city of Baltimore. But we soon came to know her fun-loving and sometimes silly self -- and should I mention she was by far the best dancer among us girls and that all the boys had crushes on her? I was able to locate her after many years and we were in touch a bit, having had a great conversation not too long ago. She will stay with us in our hearts as she always has -- and we keep all your family there, too. With deep sympathy and prayers.

“ Tweedy was a good friend and part of a life I'll never forget for many reasons. From days at the club , horseback riding adventures with Jennifer and including me into her family fold with Clayton and Ed , she was a dedicated wife , mom and funny gal. I wish the entire family peace and love during this difficult time!
