“ *Cheyenne, Kristen, and Jack,
I did not know your mother very long -- not nearly long enough! I saw the light in her eyes when she looked at each of you and how she delighted in all three of you. May the source of her courage and love, as she lived - truly lived - in the midst of this illness, strengthen you now. I am so glad you came with your parents to our group and to our Sunday School party. We all enjoyed getting to know you. I am praying that the One who helped your mother live so graciously and fully will comfort you now and that you will be assured that He will return one day and restore all things -- the story isn't over yet. God bless you, each one, and your dad.*

“ Though we only met Jeanine about a year ago we quickly saw that her life was an example of strength in the midst of adversity through trusting God. She lived life in a way that showed she trusted God's perfect will for her life, no matter what that looked like and no matter what direction that took. She will be missed here on earth, but we KNOW that she will be in eternity with Jesus, the Lord of her life.

“ Jeanine and I began our friendship at Mock Rd. Elem. as Second Grade Teachers. Our school friendship then turned into a personal friendship which I have always treasured. We often met for lunches and caught up on family news. Since, I knew the children Cheyenne, Kristen and Jack from school, Jeanine always told me about what was going on with them. She was always so proud of them and being their Mom made her a complete person. John you did a great job taking care of her. God gave us many warnings that he wanted Jeanine with him, but the human heart has a hard time comprehending that. May the Lord's Peace be with Jeanine and the whole family.
