

Jeanne Chazal

April 20, 1921 - March 15, 2015

Jeanne M. Chazal, 93, of Albany, Ga., died Sunday morning March 15, 2015 at Willson Hospice House.

Jeanne was born and raised in Ocala, Fla., attending Blessed Trinity Academy, Ocala High School and Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee, Fla.

After working in Jacksonville, Fla., and Colorado Springs, Colo., she moved to Albany in 1953 where she was employed at Joe Brashears Steel.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles Philip Chazal and Hester Dewey Chazal, and survivors include her sisters, Mary Keenan (Walter) and Hester Anne, aka Polly, Munde of Albany, Ga., and brother, Dick Chazal (Majorie) of Ocala, Fla.

Jeanne was a “people person,” with a happy greeting to all and though she never married, she doted on her family. No niece, nephew or grandniece or grandnephew was forgotten on any of their happy occasions. She loved to travel, taking many trips to Europe, England, Russia, Ireland, and Australia, and she never missed a dance.

A devoted catholic and loyal member of St. Teresa’s Church, a rosary will be held at Kimbrell-Stern Funeral Home Thursday, March 19 at 6 p.m. with visitation following. Graveside services will be in Ocala., Fla., on Saturday, March 21 at 1:30 PM at Greenwood Cemetery.

A special thanks goes to her friends and helpers, including Frances Robinson, Annett Brazier, Jeanette Jones and Bertha Taylor.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Neighbors in Need through St. Teresa's Church, 421 Edgewood Lane, Albany, Ga., or Brothers Keeper of Blessed Trinity Catholic Church, 2 SW Fort King, Ocala, FL 34474.

“ I was heartbroken to hear of Jeanne's passing. I will always remember her as one of the 'fun' adults from my childhood. She and Reba were part of our family, and Jeanne has been a constant my entire life. I was always in awe of Jeanne's energy and enthusiasm. My heart goes out to all of you in her family.

“ The Palmer Family sends thoughts of comfort and sympathy to all the Chazal family in time of their great loss of Jeanne. She was always the "Ray of Sunshine" to all of us who knew and loved her. She joins our sister Margaret in the Loving Arms of our Lord and will soon be joined by sister Virginia of Tampa.
Virginia and Jeanne were the same age and Margaret 2 years younger in growing up in Ocala and they were blessed to know each other at very young ages and to share friendships of a long and fruitful lives. From Ocala, they went on to FSCW where they were bright and happy young ladies at the Pi Phi house. Though distance sererated them in later life, they attempted to stay in touch with Jeanne.
All that have known her have been truly enriched
Our prayers are with the Chazal family.

“ Jeanne was a dear friend of our Mother and Dad and was such a great person, full of fun, zest and always stimulating conversation. We always enjoyed all "that crowd" when they would come over to our house for Merry Makers! Big fun was had by all and lots of great memories! Our thoughts and prayers from all the Heidt children.

“ Jeanne was one of my favorite people. She always told everyone that I was the first person she met when she moved to Albany. Her mother was a delight to know and enjoy when she visited her daughters in Albany. I'll miss Jeanne. She was always so full of energy and ready to go and do something. My prayers go to her family.
