“ Uncle Jeff, I can't believe it has been 4 years!! Time flies by. I miss you sooo much! I think of you every day and when I see Ty doing something funny I think of how loud you would laugh at him. He is really something! I know you are watching over us as we grow. I wish you were there on my wedding day but I know you saw me, I wish you were there when my son was born but I know you will watch him as he grows, and I wish you were here so you can be here when my second child is born but I know you will see he/she grow also. I can't wait until we get to see each other again soon. Keep a good spot for me in Heaven. I love you!!! Sorry I haven't signed this sooner!! It is still very hard!!!
Love,Ashley

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Scott, Jeff was a dear friend of mine in high school. We hung out together in a group that we affectionately called "The Neighborhood". I am deeply saddened by his passing and am praying for you. I am thankful that Jeff was part of a church and knew Jesus. Please accept my heartfelt condolences. In Christ,

“ Jeff was a great friend and one of the nicest guys you could ever meet. He is missed. "Notice the leaves on a tree. When it turns cold and the leaves change colors and fall , but they are still part of that tree. In falling, they make it possible for other life forms to come. When the new year comes and everything becomes green, the part which fell to the ground will be alive again. And so it is with life. It goes on and on." "Grandfather Sun, you come each day to dispel the darkness. In that same way I ask you to shed your light so that I may see where to take the next step." Walk in peac, Jeff.

“ Myself & my best friend Theresa went to Albany High School with Jeff & although he was a year behind us, we all became great friends. Almost every day after school we would go joy riding in his convertible while he played the song "The Wanderer" - those were the best times! He had such a big, caring heart ... I am still in shock over his passing. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and know that he made many people smile & laugh.
