“ Jenny was a very gifted and tender hearted woman. She would created lovely spaces for others to enjoy and rest in. She made beautiful handcrafted jewelry and fabric pieces for many special people and events. She was a very private and humble giver. Now, she's home with the Master Creator, and pain free. May peace and loving memories comfort her husband Tom and Jeff, Nick and Ben, and all of Jenny's dear friends.

“ Tom and family, I want you to know that Jenny, Marialis and Wilson were like special family to me. They were part of my life and Frances and Bills life and such good friends. Jenny was so sweet, so soft spoken, so calm and such a beautiful and talented artist. She had the prettiest dimples. Loosing her friendship is heartbreaking. We always tried to get together for lunch and we both were bogged down with .estate matters and caregiving. I am so grateful I got to see you both last month although under sad circumstances. Thank you Tom for coming with Jenny to Frances funeral. That is the last time I talked to Jenny and was not able to say very much. This will be a hard road for a long time Tom, but you will make it one day at a time through God Grace and persistent prayer. I will always remember y'all in prayer. Paula Fore

“ I have enjoyed knowing Jenny while she was here with her mother and then knowing her here at Tuxedo Place as well as St. John & St. Marks's Episcopal Church. She was very interesting during our book studies. I will truly miss here and though I don't know any of her family I am keeping all of you in my prayers. Bland Cleesattle

“ Tom, Jeff, Nick and Ben we are so sorry for your loss of your wife and Mother and send our sincere condolences. Jenny was one of the most talented, creative, generous and spiritually evolved people I have ever known. Her impact on my life and the arts community here in Albany will remain with me forever. I was blessed to know her and share wonderful as well as difficult times together and cannot believe that she is no longer here in a physical form. Her spirit endures and we give thanks for the times we shared. May beautiful memories bring you comfort and May she Rest In Peace.

I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Jennifer by association through her parents Wilson and Marielis Hamlett. I worked with Wilson Hamlett for years and Marielis both of them were the most enduring people. They always talked about Jennifer and were so proud of her family. Tom, Jeff, Nick and Ben I learned so much about you as well. You were so adored. Again, I'm so very sorry of your loss. May God bless you. Kathryn Pierce
