“ Sending prayers and love to Carol, Cathy, Terry and all your family as you go through these difficult days. Jerry was such a good friend for so many, many years. He was one of the kindest men I think I've ever known, with always something nice to say about everyone. He loved you all dearly and was so proud of his family. He will be missed by all of us. May you feel the love of God surrounding you in the caring and love of all your friends. I'm so deeply sorry for your loss.

Love,
Sandy

“ Carol, Cathy and family, I am so sorry to find out that Jerry had been so sick. I pray that God will comfort each of you as you need Him to comfort you and as you comfort each other. I was blessed and got to see Cathy back in September, but I know it's been a couple or more years since I've seen Carol and Jerry. I really enjoyed bowling with all of you back in the early '80s. Keep your eyes focused on God and, as you know, He will pull you through. In my thoughts and prayers, Rhonda Wilson

MY

Carol, just found out of Jerry's passing. Angie Laramore told me he had been sick, but I failed to follow up. May God wrap all of you in His loving arms. I know from experience: love and faith in our Lord will help in so many ways. Call me if you ever need to talk. It is a long, hard journey, but our love and trust in God will help us.

“Dear Carol, Kathy, Terry and family, Continuing to pray for all of you. Jerry was such a gentle and kind man. He and Carol were so hospitable to all of our disciples bible study group hosting us many years. We will truly miss him. It all seems so unbelievable as he was playing golf a few weeks ago. Love and Prayers. Angie and Paul Laramore
