“ Your father / stepfather had many fine qualities, especially due to the many adversities he had in life. We worked together when the family first came to Albany and he was a good friend to me, always willing to help if he could. I admire and often think on the many things he accomplished, and I am proud to have called him my friend. After he retired, I did not see him but on a few occasions, but last year I went by and had a good visit with him. I loved him and his accomplishments, memory, and friendship will be with me the rest of my days. My condolences to the family, he will be missed,
