“ I am miss you like crazy! Every single time I see a blue bird, or hear the song desperato I think of you. I think about you all the time. I was working today, and saw someone that had your eyes. I miss those eyes. So thankful that of the last moment I had with you. You lying there almost lifeless and I had to get back to work. You grabbed my hand and said "I love you baby". So glad those were your last words to me that I get to have for the rest of this earthly life. I love you so much. Watch over the boys and I. xoxoxo

“ Have not been in contact with Jesse for 25 years but I do cherish the years I bowled with him at the old Albany Lanes and the time I worked with him at the Marine Base. I pray God's blessings on the family and I am so happy that Jesse had accepted God's grace!

“ We love you Granddaddy!!! You will ALWAYS be granddaddy to Austin and Allison... You and grandmama kept Austin when he was only 5 weeks old... Even though you didn't keep Allison she knew you as Granddaddy too... You and Grandmama always treated them as your one of yours... You reminded me of my daddy and felt as close to you as I did my own dad... I am so blessed that you and grandmama got to come to one of Austin's football games last season... Austin wanted to play well for you... He was the happiest kid out there knowing that you came just to watch him play... We will always love you! We know that you are at peace and there is no more pain for you... You are our Guardian Angel now...

Love Always,
