“ Paul became one of my dearest friends. Claudia, you and Paul are some of the most wonderful people you'd ever want to know. Watching the love Paul had for you and his family was so sweet. He'd do anything for you guys and it was obvious. When the two of you took Jimbo in your home, this young man who had been on drugs and gave him hope, made him feel special and appreciated, you showed the love of Christ that makes us feel ashamed. You've helped Jimbo become an honest, hard-working and admired individual of the community and at our church. He help us when Ralph lost his job and we were in dire straits. He caused Ralph to gain back his strenght by working him hard. The whole time encouraging him and working with him. Paul was a leader and a mold maker - not only in countertops but in people. He looked at the good and worked with it instead of people's flaws and turning them away.

I'll miss him very much.

Love,

Raven

“ Claudia, Patti and I were saddened by the news of Paul's passing. He was a vibrant, active and engaged friend of mine for many years. We sat on opposite sides of the table for many years, including my time at corporate headquarters, but I honestly don't know of anyone that I trusted more than Paul. I know this is a terrible loss for you and your family but Paul is in a better place today. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Royce

“ Claudia, Paula, Sue, and all Mac's family,

We ache for your loss--and ours. We hope to see you Wednesday, but we won't be able to make it tomorrow night. Know that we will be thinking of you at that time and that you are in our prayers. May God comfort you in your loss and in the days to come as you adjust to your life without Mac's physical presence.

We love you all,
