“ Uncle Jim was such a sweet man the few years that I knew him. The cookouts at his home on Easter weekends were very special, and I will always cherish my memories of being around him and his whole family. He welcomed me into the family without any hesitation. My prayers for Ms. Ann and the family. He will be missed.

“ I and Jan have many pleasant memories of Jim. He, Ann, and the Girls were pleasant-across the street neighbors. We could call on Jim and Ann for any reason and help was there cheerfully, as We were for them.

I think the funniest (at least to me) was when a snake got in their house while Jim and Lester were away fishing. Kay called me to come get the snake. I ran out the door not knowing what kind of snake. Kay had run out the front door still screaming into the phone. I threw the phone down and ran across by Kay and found Ann inside watching the snake. It was non poisonous so I caught it and took it outside with explicit instructions from Ann to kill it. I did that, left it at the driveway for Jim to see where he would believe the story. And Jim, true to form, no excitement just said "thanks Gene". That was Jim true to form again calm, soft spoken and collected. A great and dependable man.

To: Ann and Girls-Jan and I are a phone call away.
