“ My dearest mother, you have been gone nearly 18 years, and I have missed you every day of every year of them. You were so beautiful all your years, but I don't think you ever believed it. It was you, always you, in your quiet, unassuming way, who held our family together. It was your prayers that literally brought Paul, me, and yes, Dad, into the Kingdom of God. You had flawless wisdom and discernment about people and situations. How I wish I had listened more. It would have saved me a world of heartache. I wouldn't take anything in the world for our nightly chats, the sound of your voice, your laughter. I can hear you still when I close my eyes. I miss you achingly, Mama. It is December 16, 2023. I am 72. And I am ready, eager, to be with you again. I love you, my sweet Mama.

“ How do I even begin to tell all that Joan has meant to my children and me. She was so very special and loved by us all and we will do all we can to be sure that we make it to heaven so that we won't be apart from her for very long. Rest well, dear sweet Mimi, you have run the race with much grace and courage and now you have a wonderful crown full of jewels. We love you....Russ, Kelley, Kati, Dalton and Russell.
