“ I am saddened to hear about Joanne. Just as my sister, Kay Bradley indicated, she was a dear friend to Olen and Ruthie Gillis, and all of our family. My first meeting with Joanne was when I was admitted to Phoebe Putney Hospital on a cold and rainy night 33 years ago to deliver my son. I will never forget the warm and understanding gestures Joanne bestowed on me, since this was my first child. She admitted me to the hospital. Later that year, I was employed in the same admittance office with Joanne and worked along side of her for many, many years and she became even more of a joy in my life. My prayers are with the family.

“ Joanne was such a dear sweet person, and a kind friend to my grandparents Olen & Ruthie Gillis (they lived on the adjacent farm). My family will always appreciate how Joanne's phone calls would help my grandmother pass the time after Papa died. Heaven is sweeter with her presence.
