

Jodie McNeil Gooch Obituary

March 26, 2013

Jodie McNeil Gooch, 54, of Albany, died Tuesday, March 26, 2013 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

Her funeral service will be at 10 AM Friday, March 29, 2013 at the graveside at Crown Hill Cemetery. The Rev. Leigh Ann Raynor will officiate.

Jodie was born at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany and attended schools in Albany. She graduated from Albany High School in the class of 1976. Jodie was a member of Porterfield Memorial United Methodist Church. She worked for many years at Security Bank. Jodie appreciated music and enjoyed volunteering at The Allman Brothers Band Museum at The Big House in Macon, GA.

Jodie is survived by her daughter: Ivy Gooch, Statesboro, GA; her mother: Joanne Gauntt, Albany, her brother: Lon McNeil, Gainesville, FL; Ivy's father: Theo Gooch, Albany.

The family will receive friends at Kimbrell-Stern on Thursday from 5-7 PM. Those desiring may send memorial contributions to The Big House Foundation, P.O. Box 4291, Macon, GA 31208, or to Porterfield Memorial United Methodist Church, 2200 Dawson Rd., Albany, GA 31707.

“ Ivy, I am so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. You and my daughter, Emily danced together at Pritchett's studio and your mom was the first person I ever trusted enough to carpool! Jodie was always sweet, gentle and kind. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this difficult time.

“ I have just found out about the passing of Jodie today. I am so very sorry for the loss of such a wonderful mother, daughter and wife. Ivy...you were her life and she loved you so much. I know because I witnessed the love during our three years in Albany. I assure you that time does heal the loss but know that Savannah and I will be here for you when you need to talk. She was one of the sweetest people I met when we lived in Albany. You and Savannah have grown up on us but I will never forget the hospitality she extended to the Blanchard family. We understand you loss because we have been there! Please know that the Lord is the only thing that will bring you any comfort and know that HE will guide you and give you strength. Sweetie...stay focused as you can and remember that you Mom wants you to get your education. I know that life seems unbearable right now...but just keep praying and knowing that Mom is at peace now. Please hug your sweet Grandmother and Dad. Prayers are with you!

“ Although I had not seen Jodie or spoken with her in a number of years, she will always occupy the spot of one of my oldest friends. We met when we were about 8 years old and shared a lot of life together during our younger days. I spent at least as much time at her house growing up as I did my own. In reading through these messages it is clear she was loved and cherished by many people. I will be praying for her family and loved ones that the Lord will provide you with the peace that passes all understanding. All our hearts are heavy with this loss but we know we will see Jodie again and will rejoice with one another in the arms of our heavenly Father. Mrs. Joanne - I love you and am holding you in my heart and prayers continually.

“ I will always remember Jodie's warm smile and friendly personality. She was such a kind person and so beautiful inside and out! I last saw her at the Debutante Ball with her lovely daughter Ivy. I really wished I had spent more time catching up with her but the night just got away from me. I was so sure that I would see her again. I remember walking with her around Lake Loretta when our daughters were both young. She had such a positive outlook and a sunny disposition which stands out most in my mind! I will miss seeing her smile when I would occasionally bump into her around town. I am so very sorry for your loss! I hope that God will surround you with comfort and that you will find Peace one day. I know that I will always see Jodie's smiling face whenever I see Ivy. I will continue to lift you all up in my prayers as you face these most difficult days.

“ I only knew Jodie (Jodie Girl) for maybe 5 years thru music and Macon. Instantly I felt a wrap of warmth around me, jus in her smile. When I went missing for a while (open heart surgery) My brother Sammy said " O Jodie Girl ask if i have seen ya. Then I KNEW that that LADY has a HEART. She knows what LOVE is, she is areal person. In this day of what it is, Jodie Girl IS and WAS LOVE. I WILL NEVER forget her, Thank you GOD for letting SHE and i cross paths.She IS with GOD ! I FEEL IT ! Thank you GOD, Thank you Jodie, for making my life and this world a Better Place because of our Friendship ! Bro Glenn

“ Words are hard to come by at a time like this. I have known Jodie since 2nd grade and we have remained friends all these years, even with a long absence. Reconnecting has been amazing and this loss is shocking and devastating. She was such a beautiful being, inside & out, not a bad word for anyone, only smiles and warm greetings. We had many good times together over all these years, but I guess we all feel cheated now, because there will be no more here.

Mrs. "McNeil", Lon, Theo, Ivy, I don't feel I can send enough prayers, condolences and love...this loss is just that big. But I will keep you all in my prayers for a long time. I so wish I could be there to say farewell, with all of you. God Bless and Keep you and forever comfort you in the knowledge we will all be together again, someday.

“ Jodie was an amazingly loyal and kind friend to me, and her spirit continues to be. It's incredible to reflect on how consistently positive a person she was.

One thing: the Big House, a place she loved so dearly, is actually PO Box 4291, not Box 291, as listed in the obituary. I know she would want this correction made.

“ "Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way where I am going." John 14:1-4

Rest in peace, dear Jodie.

“ In loving memory of my dear friend Jodie McNeil Gooch, whose candle lit so many lives and was extinguished much too soon. My life is so much richer by knowing her.

Rest in peace, dear sister. The road goes on forever. — with Jodie McNeil Gooch in Albany, GA.

“ Fly on, Sweet Jodie. You will be SO missed by SO many, myself included. Your smile, your vivacious love and energy and dedication to the love of friends and music were legendary. Feeling joy for you that you are able to witness the best music jam of all now.....but sad for us whom are still earthbound. Sending love to your family and loved ones.....Rest in Peace, my friend.

“ All of my high school peers will agree that Jodie embodied the spirit of who we were as a whole. We collectively feel her loss. Somehow though, we all know that her spirit is already playing tunes for God. And, we all know that our Lord is embracing her soul.
