“ Dear Mrs. Ross, Phyllis and Betsy,
It was with great sadness that I read about Mr. Ross' death today online. I was reading the obituary of my Brother-in-law's brother when I saw the notice on Mr. Ross.
I will keep you all in my prayers. I have so many fond memories of all of our families growing up together.
(Ross, McCoy, Mock and Coleman). Those were the good old times when we were all poor and happy! Please know I share in your sadness. God Bless each of you.

“ John was one of the best friends one could ever have. He will be greatly missed by everyone who was fortunate enough to meet him and especially to spend quality time with him. We both loved him very much. Elizabeth our thoughts, prayers and love is with you at this time.

“ It is with deep regret that my family and I will not be able to attend Uncle John's service. He and his family made me feel at home whenever we visited and I fondly remember his stories of the sandhills and Missouri and fishing on the lake. We will be in contact with the family very soon.

“ Liz and family, it is a difficult time, no matter how the changes come-----sometimes too quick and then the longer route God takes us---either is a time of change. I so enjoyed visiting you and John and you welcomed me each time & made me feel like an old friend. I can't repay you I know, but certainly can thank you again. You and John as a "pair" are blessed and I am blessed knowing you both----one in a million. He will make Heaven an even brighter place. God Bless Always, Love Dorothy Hacker

“ John, you are now safely home with the Lord... No more braces, no more wheel chair... You have given me many laughs through the years and a friendship I shall always cherish.. I was a visitor to the best "B & B" in southwest Georgia for 20 years and have many memories that I will hold dear... And now John, you can ride your horse again and you and your brother Pete can have some long talks...

Elizabeth, you were a wonderful caretaker and faithful wife and companion... As John once said, you were his legs when he couldn't do what he wanted... I love you both...

God's Blessings to all the family...

“ There are many times I can recall Mr. & Mrs. Ross visiting Grandpa & Grammi's place, or us visiting them at the Lake. Those are fond memories for me. I also knew he was a cowboy in Nebraska before coming to Albany. It grieves me that I can't be there. I'm so sorry for your loss. Mr. Ross was a wonderful man. I will always remember him.
