“ I am at a loss for what to say at this moment. I want to let you know how much your son, (and brother, Nikki) will be missed. This news came as a complete shock to me, John was a major part of my life, and I truly loved him. My Father and called me in California with this news because he remembered John as my boyfriend throughout high school. I am still in shock. I just want you to know how much your son will be missed by everyone. I am so sad to know that we did not keep in touch better throughout the years. His friends did contact me after the accident to put us back in touch, and I worked to share with him everything that I had ever known about him. He eventually regained some of that memory and would call every now and then to verify facts. I just want you to know that he meant a lot to me and to many others. I will always remember him as the brilliant, animated, rebellious, fun, artistic, talented, athletic, exciting individual that I loved so much. Please let me know if there is anything I can do. My thoughts and prayers are with you, John was an amazing person,

“ Elaine, Stone and Nicole, our dear neighbors and special friends, Our hearts are broken for you in this loss of John. He was such a super young man, so friendly, always polite and smiling. We will remember him as just a great guy!

We share your pride in John's accomplishments of this past year. He had really pulled things together and we hope that can be of some comfort to you.

We have always seen you as wonderful and devoted parents and have admired the love you've demonstrated to your children. Words seem so empty in such a time as this, but please know that you will be in our thoughts and prayers during these weeks and months ahead.

We trust that God will draw you near to His presence and you will experience His strength and comfort.

We truly care for you all, please let us know if you need anything. We wish there were not so many miles to Albany, we would be with you today to let you know of our support and heartfelt sympathy. We are just a step away to share in your grief if you will only let us know.
