“ We are so sorry to learn of John's passing. We did not see him often, but each time we did it also brought memories of his mother and father. Robert was in Albany Lodge 24 with Judson and I worked with Vi for many years; it was there I came to know Martha and John. Our sympathies to the entire family.

“ I knew Johnny from babyhood in Americus all through school in Albany. Being the tallest girl I often stood by him in pagents, school photos, etc. He was a sweet and thoughtful fellow and I am sadden at his passing. My deepest sympathy to all.

“ We were so sorry to hear about John's death. We didn't find out about it until a friend of mom's called to tell her, which was after the funeral. We just wanted you all to know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
