“Adam and Jordan, I was out of town on vacation when I learned of your Dad's death. My heart goes out to you two because I know how much your dad and mom loved you and I know how much you are going to miss them. They were both classmates and friends of mine growing up in Camilla. Out of our huge graduating class of twenty, they were the only couple who stayed together and are now together again. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you continue on with your lives the way your mom and dad would want. Allow your friends and family to help you through this difficult time. I hope it will be some comfort to you to know that others are praying for you.

“ I never met Mr. Brim, directly. I have witnessed the glow in loving son's eyes and the thrill in a proud son's voice when talking about the good time they had together at a Georgia game in Athens last year. My friend Joe loved his Dad.

“ My Best friend growing up in Camilla. We were in boy scouts together, school, we fished, hunted, and gotten into trouble together. His home was my second home to me, had many dinners at his home, slept over many times, we would watch the football games at his house with his sister Julie, "Go Miami Dolphins." We would sit up late on Saturday night's watching, "Saturday Night Live" With Chevy Chase and John Belushi when it was the best. Jon, Babs, Julie and I went out a lot having fun, as teenagers did in those days. I'll miss those days with him, but most of all, I'll miss my best friend Jon. His soul belongs to God, his memory belongs to me.
